MEMORANDUM FOR: Personnel Branch, DPD

ATTENTION : [redacted] 25X1A9a

SUBJECT : DPD Consultants

REFERENCE : DPD-2248-62, dated 4 April 1962, subject as above

1. Per our conversation of this morning, let's relax the deadline a little and make this somewhat more comprehensive. What I think Dr. Scoville would like is sufficient information on DPD consultants (whether they are called that or not) to make an informed judgment as to whether they should be retained or not. (The attached memo appears to me to deal only with the so-called Land Panel, although I don't recall that [redacted] 25X1A9a ever received that exalted status.)

2. To be specific, perhaps the easiest way to do this would be a columnar presentation in which the column headings should be something like the following: Name, Official Status (consultant or otherwise), Subjects on which we have consulted him (e.g., optics, electronics, or whatever), Frequency of Use, Compensation (if any).

3. I don't think this makes too Federal an exercise, yet we do need at least this much information in order to decide what to do next.
